Life's Colourful Collage

Engage with Age's Dementia Friendly Artist in Residence programme has been going from strength to strength.

With support from the LFT Charitable Trust, artist Anna O'Kane ran art programmes for people living with dementia in four centres in North and West Belfast. Each centre received a series of ten workshops. The purpose of the programme is to empower people living with dementia to enjoy creativity and participate in sessions where memories may emerge or their interests are shared and celebrated. The sessions enhance social interaction and help build relationships between staff members and the people they support.

Anna undertook the programme in Hemsworth Court, Cullingtree Meadows, Newington Day Centre, and Ballyowen Day Centre. The creativity of the participants abounded. Memories of childhood sweetie shops and places from the participants neighbourhoods featured in many of the sessions. There was a significant amount of "collage" work, with participants making elements of paintings and pictures, using all kinds of materials, which were then assembled by Anna.

Anna also lead a series of art and dementia training workshops for staff and family members, sharing skills that can be used in a range of settings.

The North and West Belfast programme has created an exhibition called "Life's Colourful Collage" which is on tour throughout June and July.

The dates of the exhibition are:

6th - 20th June: Chichester Library, Salsbury Avenue, Belfast BT15 5EB (Tel: 028 9050 9210)

20th June - 4th July: Girdwood Community Hub, 10 Girdwood Avenue, Belfast BT14 6EG (Tel: 028 9521 9850)

4th July - 1st August: Falls Road Library, 49 Falls Road, Belfast BT12 4PD (Tel: 028 9050 9212)

Opening times vary at each venue.

Make a point of visiting "Life's Colourful Collage" and enjoy the creativity and memories of people living with dementia.

Changing of the Guard at Dementia Friendly East Belfast

It has been all change at Dementia Friendly East Belfast, though we are pleased to announce the addition of new members of the Dementia Friendly East Steering Committee.

This month, co-chair Eamon Quinn, Director of Engage with Age, moves on after nine years leading and supporting the campaign. Eamon was central to establishing the campaign with Linda Armitage and a host of other active dementia activists. Eamon's work included establishing the brand, 40+ info hubs, the What's On Guides, training and exhibitions.

Joining the campaign in June and July we have the new Health Development Director for EBCDA Marie Anne Templeton, and new Engage with Age CEO Michelle Bolton. We wish them all a very warm welcome and look forward to the future development of Dementia Friendly East Belfast.

In a photograph from the past, pictured are artist Fionuala Duffin, Linda Armitage, and Eamon Quinn at a "Forget Me Not" making workshop in Connswater Shopping Centre.
