Silver Screenings are BACK!

We are delighted to report that the Strand Cinema and Arts Centre's "Silver Screenings" programme is back, at Belmont Bowling Club, 27 Belmont Park, Belfast BT4 3DU.

"Silver Screenings" is the Strand Cinema's weekly programme of classic movies, presented in an accessible format for older audiences. The Strand Cinema is currently out of its main premises at the top of the Holywood Road as a major renovation project is underway. The cinema had a temporary home at Connswater Shopping Centre, which sadly closed at short notice in March. But the cinema is back and its silver screen programme is excellent.

The Strand Cinema's "Silver Screenings" programme is back at Belmont Bowling Club. There is plenty of free parking on site for visitors.

The month of May sees the presentation of the classic "rom com" "Pillow Talk" with Doris Day and Rock Hudson, followed by the Ealing Comedy "Kind Hearts and Coronets". The season extends into the summer with "High Noon", "Casablanca" and "Singing In The Rain".

The Silver Screenings are a great opportunity to see a classic movie and to also meet other people and enjoy a trip down memory lane. Tickets cost £4 and include a complimentary tea, coffee and biscuits. Carers accompanying patrons go free.

Silver Screenings are a great way to spend an afternoon and develop enjoyment of classic cinema. As Humphrey Bogart said in "Casablanca" it could be "the beginning of a beautiful friendship..."

To book in for Silver Screenings, you can call 028 9065 5830 or book online at <https://strandartscentre.com/silver-screenings/>

Training, Events and Information!

Dementia Action Week 19th-25th May 2025

It's Dementia Action Week again between 19th–25th May 2025. There are a lot of activities taking place, with the week also raising awareness of the importance of an early diagnosis and the need for support.

Alzheimer's Society highlights the importance of getting access to care but estimates that 1 in 3 people with dementia do not have a diagnosis. 91% of people affected by dementia say there are benefits to getting a diagnosis. Alzheimer's Society has a simple symptom checklist which can be used to help with a conversation with your GP about your condition if you have any concerns. Log on to their Dementia Action Week website on <https://www.alzheimers.org.uk/get-involved/dementia-action-week> to use the symptom checklist. The checklist does not provide a diagnosis but is intended to make it easier to have a discussion with your GP. An Alzheimer's Society Supporter said: "If someone's worried there's something wrong – like I was – get a diagnosis. A quicker diagnosis means more peace of mind, then you can fight it."

There are a range of events taking place over Dementia Action Week.

The Belfast Trust is running a series of information events that include: an information stand at the Royal Victoria Hospital Monday 19th May 10am-4pm; an awareness stand at Musgrave Park Hospital and an afternoon activity; and awareness stands at the Mater Hospital and Crumlin Road Gaol.

Forward South is running activities including an Art and Dementia Training workshop, facilitated by Engage with Age.

Storytelling at Hollywood Arches Library

As part of its wide programme of activities, Hollywood Arches Library is hosting a Storytelling event with storyteller John Savage, between 3-4pm on Tuesday 13th May 2025.

This event is suitable for all people including people with mild to moderate dementia, attending with their carers. It promises to be an afternoon of stories, memories and reminiscence. John Savage is visitor guide for the Ulster Folk and Transport Museum and has spent years spinning yarns and tales at charity events and care homes.

The event is free of charge, though booking is recommended by calling 028 9050 9216 or emailing hollywoodarches.library@librariesni.org.uk

This month we bid a fond farewell and say thank you to Davina Mullin, who has been a stalwart of the Dementia Friendly East Belfast campaign since she started with East Belfast Community Development Agency. Davina has co-ordinated Steering Committee Meetings, the campaign's Action Plan, produced the website, created the Carers' Café, has refreshed the dementia hubs we have across East Belfast, and done so much more.

Everyone wishes Davina the best in her new endeavours and says thank you Davina for helping to make East Belfast a friendlier place for people affected by dementia.
